To whom it may concern:

This is a letter of recommendation for Mr. Vincent Church who has applied for a position at your school.

Vincent has played for me for three years and also has served one year as a student assistant for our football program and being his immediate supervisor I feel qualified to write on his behalf.

Vincent has a tremendous interest, drive and enthusiasm for life and learning. He has a strong academic preparedness, keen interest in working with people and a mature and dedicated manner of work habits. He has excellent oral and written communication skills.

Vincent is well organized and pays great attention to detail. His success as an undergraduate student speaks for itself.

Vincent's morals, trustworthiness and integrity are above reproach. He's one of the finest people I know and I recommend him very highly.

Sincerely

Jeff Duvendeck
